

Published stories

Here are the links to Roving Reporters stories on Tipping Points webinars and the 2022 Oppenheimer Research Conference. These articles will give you a sense of the quality of stories arising from the training project.

Hacks vs boffins: Bridging the divide

Journalists and scientists often speak at cross purposes – even a “different language”. Are there ways for them to understand each other better in the interests of the public good?

08 March 2023 | Roving Reporters | NMU News |

FOOD FOR THOUGHT: Changing the narrative on conservation

Hard work, clear thinking, and tough choices lie ahead for more than 380 African and global scholars attended the 2022 Oppenheimer Research Conference.

31 December 2022 | Roving Reporters

Down With The Doom. Time To Crack On With Conversation.

09 January 2023: Fred Kockot, Maxcine Kater and Rio Button | Good Things Guy

Hi-tech virtual reality is poised to revolutionise conservation experiences

05 Dec 2022 | By Maxcine Kater | Daily Maverick |

08/03/2023

Green growth economy demands widespread and fundamental change to how society is organised.

13 October 2022 | by Rio Button and Fred Kockott | Daily Maverick | Roving Reporters

‘Helicopter science’ and imposed conservation models disregard African environmental knowledge.

12 October | Daily Maverick | Rio Button, Matt Hattingh and Fred Kockott | Roving Reporters

Conservation science must empower people.

06 October | Daily Maverick | Roving Reporters

Climate change – deer do well, misery for meerkats.

5 Oct 2022 | by Maxcine Kater | Daily Maverick | Roving Reporters

Fossil finder recalls personal journey as world awaits ground-breaking new find.

05 Oct 2022 | Daily Maverick | Roving Reporters

Facing up to conservation conundrums. Conserving cows in a forest?

4 Oct 2022 | by Maxcine Kater | Daily Maverick | Roving Reporters

Smart tech ups the stakes on Africa's conservation game.

3 Oct 2022 | by Rio Button | Daily Maverick | Roving Reporters

Worried about elephant numbers. Quit counting them.

Sept 28 2022 | by Rio Button | Daily Maverick | Roving Reporters